

Are We Ready for Partnership? Ministry Assessment Tool

© Phill Butler

Your organization does not have to be big or famous to be effectively involved in a partnership or network. But certain organizational qualities frequently make collaboration easier – or allow an organization to make a genuine contribution to a partnership or...

On a scale of 1 -- 10 (1/low, 10/high) rate your ministry by answering the following questions

1. Our ministry is Kingdom-minded not just organizationally-minded _____
2. Our ministry/organization has a clear mission and vision statement _____
3. Our ministry's specialty is in demand _____
4. Our ministry' leadership is confident about our identity/purpose _____
5. Our ministry is inclusive (will work with a wide range of other agencies) _____
6. Our ministry is growing (range of services/budget/staff, etc.) _____
7. Our ministry is open to significant innovation and change _____
8. Our ministry has a strong desire to expand its impact/effectiveness _____
9. Our ministry brings unique benefits/added value to a relationship _____
10. Our ministry's willingness to share it "trade secrets" is _____

Partnership Potential Index -- Total

_____

- Scores of 80+: Ministry is likely to be very effective partner in collaboration
- Scores of 60+: Ministry is a good candidate for collaboration — may want to examine low score areas for their implications
- Scores of less than 60: Ministry may want to take time to examine core vision, values, and operational norms prior to seeking to engage others in collaboration.

Examination of low score indicators may be an effective starting place for such a review.

<https://kingdom-resource.org>

Are We Ready For Partnership? Ministry Assessment Tool